

The Following Courses Have Prerequisites

COL101. The College Experience (Cape Cod Community College)

This theme-based seminar is designed to help students develop the skills and confidence necessary to succeed in college, the world of work, and life. In this course, students will examine theories and practices associated with academic success. Areas of study include education and career planning, study skills, effective communication, critical and creative thinking, information literacy, personal management, development of community and awareness of diversity, technology, and leadership. Modeled on the “workshop format” in which students learn by doing, students will be actively engaged in group activities and team projects. Prerequisite: ENL010 / 3 credits

COM103. Human Communication (Cape Cod Community College)

This course fosters and improves competence in intrapersonal, interpersonal, group and public communication situations. Students will demonstrate skills necessary to communicate effectively through exercises and presentations that reflect practical, real-world situations. The purpose of the course is to improve the student’s skill in communication by providing relevant knowledge and opportunity to apply that knowledge. Prerequisites: ENL010 or ESL102 or satisfactory basic skills assessment score / 3 credits

COM105. Survey of Mass Communication (Cape Cod Community College)

This course explores the history, social impact, forms, and techniques of such media as newspapers, film, books, radio, television, and other expressions of mass culture. The aims of the course are to enable the student to better understand the new media-oriented environment in which we find ourselves and to explore various options available as a consumer of public information. Prerequisite: ENL010 or a satisfactory reading comprehension score on the basic skills assessment / 3 credits

MDIA111. Introduction to Mass Communication (Massasoit C. College) Credits: 3

This course surveys the history and growth of newspapers, radio, television, film, and the telecommunications industries. The course offers the student an awareness of how mass media influence social and personal environment. Contemporary media issues, policies, and ethics are discussed. Prerequisite: Preparing for College Reading II (ENGL092) or waiver by placement testing results.

COM220. Introduction to Film  (Cape Cod Community College)

This course provides the student with an appreciation of the film experience. Particular attention will be given to important techniques, theories, and genres which influenced the technical and aesthetic development of the medium. Concepts will be illustrated through the viewing of examples of classic American and international cinema. (4 class hours) Prerequisite: ENL101 / 3 credits

 These courses have college level pre-requisites, but may appeal to adult learners who have started work on degrees at other times or in other places. Some high school students may have enough theater experience to meet the prerequisite for Acting on Camera.
